THE 29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This week Bishop Tod Brown passed into eternal life. Bishop Brown wasn't just the bishop who ordained me but also a friend. This week, I leave you all with his biography provided by the Diocese of Orange.

God bless you all,
Fr. Patrick

REVEREND TOD DAVID BROWN, D.D. BISHOP EMERITUS OF ORANGE, PASSES INTO ETERNAL LIFE

It is with great sadness that I inform you of the death of the Most Reverend Tod David Brown, D.D., Bishop Emeritus for the Diocese of Orange. Bishop Brown passed away on October 15, 2023, at 86 years old surrounded by friends, family and brother priests.

Bishop Brown was born in San Francisco on November 15, 1936, the first of two children born to George and Edna Anne Brown. His brother Daniel Brown lives in Orinda, California with his wife Jeanne. He has two nieces, one nephew and six grand nephews.

Bishop Brown received his early education at various schools in Northern California. His seminary education and formation were at Ryan Seminary in Fresno, St. John's Seminary in Camarillo and the North American College in Rome, Italy. He has a B.A. from St. John's Seminary, a STB from the Pontifical Gregorian University, Rome and has master's degree in biblical theology and education from the University of San Francisco. Bishop Brown was ordained to the priesthood on May 1, 1963, for the Diocese of Monterey in California.

On December 27, 1988, Pope John Paul II appointed him Bishop of Boise, Idaho. He was ordained and installed as bishop of that see on April 3, 1989. On September 3, 1998, Bishop Brown was installed as the third Bishop of Orange, succeeding Bishop Norman McFarland, who had served the Diocese of Orange until his retirement. Bishop Brown shepherded the Catholic community in Orange County through turmoil and success for 14 years and was influential in meeting the goals and needs of the people. Bishop Brown was instrumental in reaching a groundbreaking settlement with victims of clergy sexual abuse and instituted unprecedented reforms including the Covenant with the Faithful in 2004. Through the innovative vision and tireless mission of Bishop Brown to build a much needed cathedral for Orange, the Diocese acquired the 34-acre Crystal Cathedral campus which would be transformed into a Catholic Cathedral as a center of worship, mission and culture for the more than 1.2 million Catholics in the diocese and for Christians all over the world. Bishop Brown retired in December of 2012.

We ask that you continue to pray for the repose of Bishop Tod's soul and offer thanksgiving to God for this servant's many years of ministry and evangelization.

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

Matthew 22 : 15-21 | Paying Taxes to the Emperor

We invite you to take this home to reflect on this week's Gospel and how it applies to your own life.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

In what ways are you compromising your faith?

How are you going to offer your time, talents, and treasures back to the Lord this week?

What is one word that stood out to you in the readings or Homily that you can take to prayer this week?
