After meeting with some folks a few weeks ago about our parish website, I started clarifying my thinking about establishing a “Communication Ministry” here in our parish. What I think we need is to have women and men who know about marketing, messaging, IT, and all the varieties of social media to come together and talk over how we might use all of these marvels for getting out the message of Jesus Christ and the message of His Church located here in St. Timothy Parish.

It occurs to me that, with the right folks around the table, we would look at and evaluate what we have and don’t have, what we need and don’t need, and how we might develop for now and for the future our communicating the Gospel message to those who are here each week and to those in our local community whom we don’t even know.

I confess to know little or nothing about technicalities; I am sure that there are folks in our parish who, with their expertise, could work together with me to come up with new strategies and effect ways to tell the good news of Jesus in ways that people communicate each day.

If this type of ministry appeals to you, would you please contact me at 949 249 4091 or by email jurell@st-timsrc.org.

THANKS SO MUCH FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION.

Children are involved in a process requiring enrollment in a Faith Formation program or Catholic school. Parents become involved at home with user-friendly Reconciliation and Eucharist preparation materials. Occasional parent sessions and family gatherings are required as well as a half-day retreat for both youth and parents before First Eucharist. *Additional Registration fee required $25 - First Reconciliation $45 - First Eucharist
Saints Joachim and Ann

St. Joachim and St. Ann were Mary’s parents and Jesus’ grandparents. Ann means “gracious” and Joachim means “God raises him.” They must have held a special place in Jesus’ family when he was a little boy. Do you think St. Ann made cookies for Jesus and St. Joachim took Jesus fishing? This is a good day for grandparents! Say a prayer for YOUR grandparents today.

“A Grandparent is one who strengthens you with prayer, blesses you with love and encourages you with hope.”

May God bless all Grandparents.

Weeds Among the Wheat

Weeds are plants that shouldn’t be there. They use the sun and the soil that the good plants need. Have you ever helped your Mom pull weeds in the garden? In today’s parable, Jesus tells about a man who lets the weeds grow along with the wheat until harvest time, so that the good plants don’t get pulled up along with the weeds.

The weeds represent the bad people, who will go to Hell at the final judgement. God lets them stay alive as long as the good people. He wants to give sinners lots of time to repent so that they can go to Heaven instead.

All the readings today are about God’s mercy. God is the most powerful of all, but instead of destroying sinners He wants to give them more chances. When you think about it, you will realize God has already been merciful to all of us- because we have all sinned. We should thank God for His mercy, and if we do sin again we should show Him we are sorry by going to Confession.

What did the weeds in today’s parable represent? Find all the letters that are in the weeds and unscramble them to find out.

A Summer Prayer

In the summer, Lord, we truly recognize your gift of joy. And so we thank you each day for the warm weather, the children at play, the gatherings with friends and families, our backyard barbecues, flowering gardens, happy vacations and other summer treats.

We ask you to help us to stay aware of your presence in all of this. Assist us in being patient, energetic, confident and thankful through these beautiful months of summer. When the weather cools and leaves begin to fall, help us to serve you joyfully.

“I will praise you, Lord with all my heart; I will tell all of the wonderful things you have done. I will sing with joy because of you. I will sing praise to you, Almighty God.”

Psalm 9:1-2
Nineteen-year-old Marc shares the story of how Christian volunteers with the Safe Families Plus program at Olive Crest are helping him transition from a very dangerous and unsettled past to college and a successful adulthood.

A year ago he never would have believed he would graduate from high school and go to college. It just wasn’t in the cards Marc had been dealt. Marc, along with his five brothers and sisters, had been constantly on the move, as their mother fled domestic abuse.

And there were other distractions from school work. Like the shot from a passing car outside his apartment intended for his cousin who was a gang member. His cousin ducked, avoiding a bullet that then narrowly missed Marc’s sister sitting on the front steps. Uncles and cousins in gangs pressured Marc to join them, but he constantly said no to the future of violence and drugs that he knew they offered.

Then a year ago Marc was torn from his family. The shelters where his mother and younger siblings found refuge refused to take in youths as old as Marc, who had turned 18. He moved temporarily into a youth shelter but discovered that such shelters would require him to work so many hours that he would have to drop out of high school, as his older brother and sister had done. With no good solution, Marc searched frantically for help but ran into closed doors.

His luck changed the day he pulled from his backpack a card he had received from a shelter caseworker and called the phone number on it. He spoke to someone at Olive Crest, a nonprofit Christian organization with a successful track record assisting families in crisis by finding temporary lodging for their small children. Marc learned that Olive Crest was launching another program called Safe Families Plus to provide Christian hospitality to 18- to- 24-year-olds who are adrift. The plan was to surround them with a community of caring people to guide them into adulthood.

Danny Sells, national director of Olive Crest’s Safe Families for Children and its program for young adults, said about five years ago resources were developed to enable youths leaving the foster care system to achieve independence. As one of the first youths taken into Olive Crest’s Safe Families Plus program, Marc was welcomed into the Tustin home of a couple with two children. Touched by their kindness, generosity and mentoring over the past year, Marc said, “They are going to be family for the rest of my life.” Friendship also was extended by two Olive Crest volunteers who each morning drove him to school. On June 12 Marc, now 19, graduated from Samuel Academy in Santa Ana, with his younger sisters and brother attending the ceremony. “It was so cool,” he reflected. They said, “Marc you are the first to graduate in the family.”

In the fall Marc will enter Concordia University in Irvine, one of three colleges that accepted him. His dream is to excel as a physics major so he can attend M.I.T. for a masters and doctorate degrees. Then he plans to join the Air Force to become eligible for the NASA astronaut program.

Marc has cobbled together savings, scholarships, grants and loans to pay for his education. But he is still $3,000 to $4,000 short of the funds he needs to cover his first-year costs. Olive Crest singled Marc out as the kind of promising youth who could benefit from a new scholarship fund that St. Timothy’s Hope for Kids ministry is spearheading. Olive Crest’s Safe Families Plus program will administer the scholarship fund and choose recipients.

On Monday, July 24, Marc will be the featured speaker at our summer Backyard BBQ. Come join us as we learn more of Marc’s story, our Hope for Kids fundraising walk in the park, and the ways we can help endangered youth find their way to college and a hopeful future.

On August 12 “Hope for Kids” will hold its first scholarship walk at Laguna Niguel Regional Park to help raise college funds for youth like Marc. The event is scheduled from 8:30 am to noon and, besides a two mile walk around the park lake, will feature a raffle for prizes, bake sale and free hot dogs. People can sign up for the walk or to donate at the BBQ or after Masses on the weekends of July 30 and August 6. “It’s all about everybody helping each other,” said Danny Sells from Olive Crest. “When everybody does something, the Marcos of the world make it.” (by Leslie Berkman)

Catholic Coalition News!

This is the lot where our Tustin veteran home will be built. Keep up to date each month on our progress.

A year ago several Catholic communities, including our St. Timothy's parish, united under the mission of Habitat for Humanity of Orange County to provide a safe and decent place for limited income Orange County families to live. A collective organization of over 20 parishes, Catholic businesses, and individuals in the Orange Diocese are partnering on a veteran two home development with Habitat OC in the city of Tustin.

Since undertaking the responsibility of this project the Catholic Coalition has raised $100,000 with $50,000 remaining to complete our commitment to the home build. With the outstanding support of St. Timothy's parishioners we raised nearly $12,000 towards this effort. Habitat for Humanity and the Coalition thanks you deeply.

This project will break ground in late July 2017 and will draw on the Catholic community for the majority of the volunteer responsibilities until Spring 2018. We are encouraging all to volunteer and support this on going project. To sign up please visit http://habitatoc.volunteerhub.com/SignIn and establish a profile with Habitat OC. Once the volunteer opportunities begin in the coming weeks, our parish will receive a private build code to unlock available build dates with other parishes across Orange County. The code will be published in the next Catholic Coalition article.

If you would like more information you can contact me, Ramiro Reveles (Ram) at (949) 228-1642 or through email at rmreveles@cox.net. Any additional questions or project process can be directed to Tristen Seagondollar at Tristen@Habitatoc.org

St. Timothy Backpack Project

Why not have a family-sponsor-a-family project!

For the past six years, the Vacation Bible School has partnered with our St. Vincent de Paul Society to sponsor a backpack Project for children who are in need in our own community. The children receiving backpacks are identified from our pantry clients, Faith Formation families, and St. Vincent de Paul clients.

This year we are collecting backpacks and supplies for 150 children, grades 1 - 8. These backpacks make a great difference in the lives of the young ones who receive them.

We invite you to join us.

If you would like to donate a backpack or school supplies, kindly bring them to the decorated containers in the courtyard after Masses on the last weekend in July and the first weekend in August or to the front office during the week.

We need these by August 8.

Supplies needed:
Backpacks for grades K-8, crayons – 24 count, erasable markers, #2 pencils, Elmers glue sticks/school glue, pink erasers, 12 inch rulers, yellow highlighters, black or blue ballpoint pens, wide or college ruled 3-hole paper, spiral notebooks3 ring binders, 5 ¼ inch school scissors, pencil sharpeners, black or blue ballpoint pens, wide or college ruled 3-hole paper
