Jesus said to them, “I tell you, the tax collector went home justified, not the Pharisee; for whoever exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Luke 18:14
This weekend I am blessed to be in Cary, North Carolina, for the wedding of my niece Nichole and her fiancé, Landon. By the time you are reading this article, the reception will either be in full swing, or it will be the day after! The wedding is taking place at St. Michael the Archangel Church (my niece’s parish); I am honored to be the priest celebrant with them.

As is true with about 50% of all weddings I have witnessed in 42 years, Nichole and Landon are both baptized, yet raised in different Christian denominations. Nichole is Catholic, Landon is Southern Baptist. Both are actively engaged in their respective church communities, and both attend both churches together most weekends.

It has been fascinating to hear and be able to respond to Landon’s questions about our Catholic faith traditions, and I am grateful to have learned about the Southern Baptist traditions from Landon and his parents. Regardless of the different denominations, my niece and her fiancé will enter into the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony as they exchange their vows, saying:

I, Nichole/Landon, take you, Nichole/Landon, to be my wife/husband.
I promise to be faithful to you,
in good times and in bad,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to honor you
all the days of my life.

Please keep this newly married couple in your prayers that the promises they make will be kept and that their love grow with the passing of each day. Also, pray for the 19 couples I am currently working with in preparation for their upcoming weddings. Thanks be to God.

Stewardship Reflection, October 27, 2019
“for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Luke 18:14
Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.
