All Souls
The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed
I am the RESURRECTION and the LIFE;
whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.
John 11:25-26
“The Souls of the Just are in the Hands of God”

The month of November is traditionally the time when we Catholics especially remember to pray for the souls of those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. May I quote from the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults:

“The Church teaches that each person receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of death, in a particular judgment. St. John of the Cross wrote: “At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love”. Perfect love will make possible entrance into heaven, imperfect love will require purification, and a total lack of love will mean eternal separation from God.”

“The Church gives the name Purgatory to the final purification of the elect; those who die in the state of friendship with God but who are not fully purified and perfected are assured of their eternal salvation. However, they must undergo purification. The Church assists those in Purgatory through prayer and especially the Eucharist in their final process of purification.

During this month we will pray for all who have died from parish since our founding in 1980; their names can be seen on the window panels of the Church. We also especially remember those who have died in this past year; their names are on the cover of the bulletin today.

For these, and for all who have died, we pray “Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and may perpetual life shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace. Amen.

The annual National Needs Collection is this weekend. This collection combines four national collections into one:

Catholic Campaign for Human Development: Developed by the U.S. bishops to address the root causes of poverty in America through promotion and support of community controlled, self-help organizations and transformative education.

Catholic Communication Campaign: The essential mission of the CCC is to contribute to the process of evangelization by fostering activities in relation to television, radio and other media, and through special projects of the Catholic press.

Catholic University of America: Provides funding for academic scholarships at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC.

Catholic Home Missions: This appeal helps our Catholic neighbors here in the United States who do not have access to basic pastoral services like Mass, the sacraments and faith formation.

Thank you to those that have answered the call to share the teachings of our Catholic faith with the children of our parish community. We are filled with gratitude and appreciate your time, effort and commitment.

Over thirty Faith Formation teachers, (catechist is the name given when teaching religion), were scattered throughout the classrooms beginning the first weeks in October as we began Faith Formation for elementary age children. We were filled with joy to see the children swarm the campus. We’ve been planning for their return all summer. May God continue to bless them, their parents, and catechists all year long.

As a small gift of appreciation the catechists were each given an apple on the first day of Faith Formation classes. So, why do we give apples to teachers anyway? Some say, It’s to show favor with the teacher to get a better grade. In today’s world, you may have to resort to an Apple computer or iPod to make that happen. Others say parents didn’t have the money to pay the teachers so they gave them food. Such as apples which were plentiful in the fall. Still others say it come about from the Book of Genesis in the Garden of Eden were Eve picks the fruit from the “Tree of Knowledge”. I like to think it is simply a sheer act of kindness.

Stewardship Reflection, November 3, 2019
“But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, ‘Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.’” Luke 19:8
We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn’t called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?
