As we continue with this second Stewardship Weekend, the focus shifts from Time and Talent to that of Treasure. In last weekend’s bulletin, there were testimonies about how fellow parishioners are involved in the life of our parish, and why they are involved.

This weekend we turn to the practicalities of financial stewardship. I want to predicated this topic by expressing my gratitude to all who are so generous to our parish and to many other causes that come our way.

I am asked many times “just where does my Sunday donation go anyway?” I have tried, with the help of our Finance Council and Business Manager, to give some basic responses to this very good question. Your regular, consistent, and thoughtful donations keep our parish alive and of service to many people.

As always, the full financial picture of our parish is available at www.st-timsrc.org

Your financial support of our parish is “Stewardship in Action”!

A Reflection on Good News

Remember when good news / bad news jokes were very popular? This was my favorite: The Pope, having been given a miraculous revelation, announces to the crowd gathered in St. Peter’s square, “My children, I have good news and bad news. The good news is, Jesus himself is coming this very night!” After the cheering has subsided, someone shouts, “But, Holy Father, what is the bad news?” The Pope says, “He’s really ticked off!

These days we get more than enough bad news from the media. Some say the only good news in the paper is in the comics or the sports section (unless they’re Dodger fans). Actually, there are some nuggets of good news (acts of heroism or acts of kindness) even in our newspapers, but most of the time they are hard to find. We can always find words of comfort in books written by great people like Thomas Merton, Henri Nouwen or Richard Rohr. But the most reliable source of the best of good news (good news = Old English Godspel = Gospel) is the Bible, especially the New Testament and not only the four Gospels but also the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of St. Paul and others and the Book of Revelation.

So we read our Bible and we find the good news. The next step is to believe what we just read. Our cynical side may suggest, “Oh sure, that’s fine in theory, but…” or “That sounds too good to be true, so what’s the catch?” But if we have found the good news and, trusting in God’s faithfulness, we believe it, the third step is to share it with others. The message of God’s love for us and for all of his creation is too good to keep to ourselves. In everything that we say and everything that we do, Lord, make each of us a messenger of your good news to the world. In truth, Lord, we do believe that your servant Paul was speaking to us as well as to Timothy when he charged, “Proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.” (by Bill Kramer)

Children’s Liturgy of the Word,

Only 20 minutes one Sunday each month during the Mass you typically attend!

Parents of children who partake in C.L.O.W. are encouraged to volunteer.

We are currently in need of a presider at the 9:00 a.m Mass on the 3rd Sunday of the month.

Diocesan volunteer forms are required. For more information, contact the Faith Formation Office:

949/495-4126 or email Valerie Skaare: vskaare@st-timsrc.org.
Safe Environment at St. Timothy

All children ages pre-school through eighth grade registered in Faith Formation classes will partake in a Safe Environment program called “Circle of Grace”. The curriculum is faith based and underlines the commitment to protect children and young people supported and mandated by the Diocese of Orange.

It emphasizes that all children and youth should experience a welcoming, secure and protected environment allowing them to embrace all aspects of their Christian faith and engage in healthy relationships.

The key objectives are:

- Children/youth people will understand they are created by God and live in the love of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- Children/youth people will be able to describe the Circle of Grace which God gives each of us.
- Children/youth people will be able to identify and maintain appropriate physical, emotional, spiritual and sexual boundaries.
- Children/youth people will be able to identify all types of boundary violations.
- Children/youth people will demonstrate how to take action if any boundary is threatened or violated.

Closing Prayer

Thank you, God, For always being with me in my Circle of Grace.

Thank you for the gift of the Holy Spirit Who helps me know what is good.

Thank you for giving me people who cared about me And want me to be safe.

Amen.

This is the Circle of Grace.

Raise your hands above your head and then bring your outstretched arms slowly down.

Extend your arms in front of you and then behind you embrace all of the space around you then slowly reach down to your feet.

Knowing that God is in this space with you. This is your Circle of Grace.

You are in it.

Thanksgiving Day
8:30 AM

Let’s sing, pray, offer signs of gratitude to God and to one another. The music will be lovely and lively, and our gathering will imitate the great throng in heaven around the throne of God’s glory. Bring family, bring friends, and bring bread and wine to be blessed for your holiday table.

Stewardship Reflection, November 17, 2019
“Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” 2 Thessalonians 3:9
Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don’t go around bragging about it. But through their actions and words, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and other people desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others have with our Catholic faith.
