Statement from the Diocese of Orange

Just in case you missed the statement that was read all Masses last weekend, let me print it here for information and clarification:

An Important Message to Pastors and Priests Regarding Coronavirus

“Given that the County of Orange has declared a health emergency, the potential for person-to-person spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19) in the U.S., and to ease the concerns of our faithful, Bishop Vann, in accordance with canons 85 and 90 of the Code of Canon Law, hereby dispenses those who are sick from attending Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, until further notice.

Additionally, Bishop Vann is mandating:

1. The faithful are not to hold hands during the Our Father nor shake hands at the sign of peace.
2. Communion from the cup is to be discontinued until further notice.
3. All ministers of Holy Communion should sanitize their hands before and after distributing Holy Communion.

Please share these directives to your parishioners and ask them to seek the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes for all who are sick.”

I also requested, on behalf of our priests, deacon, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, that those who normally receive Holy Communion on their tongue would refrain from doing so during this time of concern of spreading germs.

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Join us for a very special evening at St. Timothy Church for

TAIZÉ PRAYER

Music provided by Bob De Carlo, Lauren McCaul and their Taizé Musical Ensemble.

Monday, March 9, 2020 • 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

The Taizé Prayer Service is a peaceful, meditative, candle-lit service that centers around music, prayer, and silence that provides a time of quiet and solitude in the presence of God. The repetitive style of music facilitates the meditative quality of prayer. This expresses a basic reality of faith that can be grasped quickly by the heart and intellect, gradually penetrating the whole being. The service also includes some short readings for reflection. The assembly is to immerse itself in the simple but profound musical harmonies and let itself be carried by this sung prayer.

Silence during music is one of the most important aspects of this particular prayer practice. Maintaining silence is simply holding oneself in the presence of Christ, through the Holy Spirit.

Join us and see why so many people are so impressed with this restful prayer service.

“Be still, and know that I am God.” — Psalm 46:10
During Lent there are special Gospel readings that are read on certain Sundays as part of the rituals for the Elect in RCIA; these are called the Scrutinies. These Gospel passages have many layers and rich symbolism that we often miss at first glance, even if we have heard them many times before. All are invited to encounter Jesus as He ministers to the Samaritan woman at the well, as He heals the man born blind, and as He raises Lazarus from the dead.

This three-part series will be on Sundays, March 8, 15 & 22 from 12:15-2pm in the Hall and will be facilitated by Matt Zemanek, Director of Adult and Youth Faith Formation. If you have any questions, please contact him at mzemanek@st-timsrc.org. Childcare is available, please RSVP by the Wednesday prior to each Sunday to Marya Wallace, mwallace@st-timsrc.org or 949-495-4126. There is no cost to participate.

All are welcome and we hope to see you there!

The Food Pantry helps give Hope to Others

Recently our food pantry team received a wonderful thank you note from a client telling us she no longer needed our help with groceries. She’d been going through a tough divorce and was very grateful for the generous help provided by our parish, but she is now back on her feet and can afford her own food. Another client and her children had been living in their car for a year but finally found an affordable apartment. Not only do they now have a home, they are able to eat healthier food that they cook in their own kitchen. We are so grateful when we hear these success stories! It is all possible because we are blessed with the generosity of our parishioners.

Care for our Common Home
Interconnectedness

“When we try to pick out anything by itself, we find it hitched to everything else in the Universe” (John Muir)

Pope Francis took it a step further in Laudato Si, when he pointed out that everything is indeed connected, including the economy, and that profit alone should not be the sole criterion of our economic decisions. A true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor. Researchers for Catholic Relief Services, for example, predicted that because of climate change water will become scarcer in Central America, meaning smaller corn and bean crops and diminished income for already stressed small farmers.

The things we buy can make a difference. “Fair Trade” means that workers in other countries were paid a fair wage and ensures that products were created through environmentally responsible practices. By buying fair trade products like coffee, chocolate, clothing and home décor, we support both workers and the environment. (by Bill Kramer, Life, Justice and Peace)

“I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God that you have…..”

Catechists demonstrate a faithful commitment of living the Gospel message by faithfully preparing and teaching Faith Formation classes. The word Catechist is derived from Greek origin, which means echoing the Word of God.

Fourth grade Tuesday Catechists Sue Schaar and Caprice Pelonis-Buberl’s class answered this question:

What do you like best about faith formation classes?

◊ I like learning about lots of new things about Jesus I didn’t know and making new friends.
◊ The lessons that go home and I can read on my own.
◊ Reading the “Gospels” on the floor each time we meet.
◊ All the adults at St. Timothy’s are really nice, friendly, and welcoming.
◊ Meeting new friends and learning about God and Jesus.
◊ Getting to know new people.
◊ I like getting to know my teachers. One year I had a really nice teacher; then the next year I had another really nice teacher.
◊ Getting candy when I complete and turn in my homework.
◊ I like a lots of things.
◊ Learning about our Catholic religion.
◊ The opportunity to learn to become closer to God.

All are welcome!  Children’s Faith Formation;

Collection for the Church in Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe. For many in Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechists, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

Free to Be

All women of the parish are invited to join the Free to Be Woman’s study group for our Lenten book study “In His Spirit” by Fr. Richard Hauser beginning on Thursday March 12. 9:30-11:30, in the Hall. Books have been donated by Dynamic Catholic. Contact Helene Markel hmarkel@st-timsrc.org for more information.
