St. Timothy Catholic Church
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Come, Worship the Lord
Come, and worship the Lord, for we are his people, the flock that he shepherds. Alleluia.

Come, let us bow down and worship, bending the knee before the Lord our maker.
For we are his people, we are the flock that he shepherds.

Come Just As You Are
Come just as you are, hear the Spirit call. Come just as you are. Come and see, come receive, Come and live forever.

Life everlasting, and strength for today. Taste the Living Water and never thirst again.

Remembrance
Oh, how could it be that my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, “Take this bread, take this wine”, now the simple made divine for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your table, by your grace you are making us faithful.

Lord, we remember you, and remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you, our worship leads to communion. We respond to your invitation; we remember you.

See his body, his blood, know that he has overcome every trial we will face.
None too lost to be saved, none too broken or ashamed. All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your table, by your grace you are making us faithful.

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Lord Jesus, come in glory.
Lord Jesus, come in glory. Lord Jesus, come in glory. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Just Like You
Revive my heart; renew my soul. In You, oh Lord, I am made whole.
No more in fear will I wonder ’cause you’re my God, my Lord and lover. Like a burning fire be my one desire.

I want to be holy just like You. I want to go where you lead me to.
With reckless abandon to Your truth, I want to fall deeper in love with You.

Oh lift me up God my Father. In all this world there is no other.
I’m dancing in Your Holy presence, Your glory fills all my senses. Like a burning fire be my one desire.
